February 8: Patent Law for Antitrust Lawyers (FTC - Room 432)

Antitrust Law for Patent Lawyers (FTC - Room 332)

9:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. Concurrent Sessions

These sessions will lay the foundation for all future hearings discussions. They will provide essential background information and identify critical issues.

February 20: Economic Perspectives on Intellectual Property, Competition and Innovation

9:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. and 2:00 p.m. - 4:30 p.m. (FTC - Room 432)

These sessions will explore what economic learning reveals, and does not answer, regarding the relationships between intellectual property and innovation, and between competition and innovation.

February 25 - 28: Business and Economic Perspectives on Real-World Experience with Patents

Thanks to the Competition Policy Center and the Berkeley Center for Law & Technology of the University of California at Berkeley, hearing sessions will take place at the Haas School of Business on the Berkeley campus.

Daily sessions will focus on business and other testimony regarding the “real-world” experience with patents and competition, as well as explore economic and business perspectives on intellectual property, competition, and innovation.

March 19 - 20: Business and Other Perspectives on Real-World Experience with Patents (FTC - Room 432)

Similar to the Berkeley sessions, these sessions will focus on testimony regarding the “real-world” experience with patents and competition.

Further information about these and subsequent hearings, expected to extend through June, will be posted on the Antitrust Division’s web site www.usdoj.gov/atr/hearing.htm and the FTC’s web site www.ftc.gov/opp/intellect/index.htm as it becomes available.
